COWES, Isle of Wight, Aug. 6.-With rospect of a splendid day's racing. Vigiint, Britannia and Satanita started this morning in the big event of the regatta of the Royal London Yacht Club. A beter course could hardly be desired, and weather was what the experts were heased to call of the Satanita variety. The course was around the Isle of Wight, superb marine spectacle was preid. WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The Democratic tariff conferrees were in session again to-day at 11 o'clock and resumed the work of trying to reach an agree-ment on the points of difference. When some of the members of the Committee came out of the conference room at 12 o'clock they stated that no perceptible progress had been made, and that to all ppearances the situation was the same as it had been for the past week.

After waiting vainly a long time for Donohue to reappear, the men rowed to the island and turned Pender over to the authorities.

Donohue was undoubtedly drowned, as as it would have been impossible for him to swim to the shore under water from the point where he disappeared. He was twenty-two years old, married and a check-clerk at 21 Washington street. He had been committed by Justice Martin on June 22 last, for six months for disorderly conduct. This was his second term on the island.

Pender, who is thirty-four years old and unmarried, and who was also constituted by Justice Martin June 28 last, for six months, for disorderly conduct, said, after his capture, that there had been a wholesale plan of escape by the gang. At the last moment, however, the other men weakened, and only he and Donohous made the dash for liberty.

The gang had been taken to work on the Metropolitian Hospital, which is only a few hundred feet away from the workhouse. They were hired out by the authorities to a Mr. Smith, had given a receipt for them, and when the attempt to escape was made the men were under his charge of the hospital's construction.

Didn't Park Wilson improve in his throwing to second after several Brook-lyns raced down there so audaclously? Then how the Grooms stuck to first when Wilson threw two or three of them out in succession! They were getting too gay with Wilson.

What a lot of little tricks and kicks Griffin, of the Brooklyns, indulges in: All his violent objections and holding up of the second game were for the sim-ple object of permitting Stein to gain breathing power and strength when he saw the Glants were again rapping him freely.

After Brooklyns' "throw down" by the Ironsides in Newark yesterday, what is there to fear this afternoon? The Ironsides were beaten 10 to 0 Saturday by the Orange A. C., and yet the Ironsides beat the Brooklyns 3 to 2 yesterday. And at that Gastright and Daub both took a hand at pitching for the Brooklyns.
